

RICHARD NOLAN

Called: 1999

Profile:

Richard specialises in Company Law, Commercial Law, Insolvency and Trusts. He has developed a particular interest in shareholder rights and their exercise. He has given many continuing education lectures and seminars for several leading firms.

After graduating from Cambridge, he qualified and practised as a solicitor with a highly regarded City firm. In October 1993, he returned to Cambridge, becoming a fellow of St John's College. He is presently Reader in Corporate & Trust Law, Faculty of Law, University of Cambridge, and a fellow and director of studies in Law at St. John's College.

He has been a consultant to the Law Commission, Company Law Review and the DTI.

In his spare time, Richard likes cycling, walking (particularly at home in Yorkshire) and collecting prints.

Education:

Jesus College, Cambridge BA (1988), MA (1992) (First Class, Philosophy Part IA and Law Parts IB and II)

Languages:

French and German

Publications:

Contributor to:

- Buckley on the Companies Acts, (15th Edition)
- Shareholder Remedies
- Director's Duties.
- Numerous articles on corporate and trust law in leading practitioner and academic journals

Co-editor of:

- Restitution, Past, Present and Future.